

NOTES

N.B. The ZVI is produced using DTM terrain data, which excludes any objects on the surface of the earth such as buildings and vegetation, which act as visual barriers. The ZVI is overlaid therefore as it does not include any visual barriers.

Legend

-  Potential visibility of traffic on the proposed bridge (truck height of 4m to give maximum elevation of 31.3m AOD)
-  Mid section of the new road scheme

|                                                                                     |                                                                                     |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|  |                                                                                     |
| Report Title.                                                                       | ENVIRONMENTAL STATEMENT                                                             |
| Report Number.                                                                      | MG_REP_EIA_007                                                                      |
| Figure Title                                                                        | LANDSCAPE & VISUAL AMENITY2km ZVI OF PROPOSED ROADSCHEME AT BRIDGE CROSSING |
| Figure number.                                                                      | 12.14.2                                                                             |